

Los Angeles County Bar Association

Meet the Students Who Represent the Diversity of the LAUSD by Volunteering for

Dialogues on Freedom

This annual program is sponsored by the LACBA and Los Angeles Superior Court in cooperation with the Los Angeles Unified School District

Dialogues on Freedom commemorates the events of September 11th by sending judges and attorneys to Los Angeles area high school classrooms to conduct discussions on the meaning of freedom and how we can balance freedom and security.

This year's event will take place on

Tuesday, September 11, 2007

Time/Place of training sessions:

(New participants highly encouraged to attend one of the sessions)

1. Wednesday, Sept 5, 2007 5:30 pm –
Mosk Courthouse, 111 N. Hill Street, Room 222
2. Saturday, Sept 8, 2007 10:00 am –
Venice High School, 13000 Venice Blvd.

If you are interested in interacting with these bright high school students, fill in the form below send it in before AUGUST 20, 2007.

Dialogues on Freedom Volunteer Form 2007

Name _____ Firm or Office _____

Office Phone _____ e-mail _____

Firm or Office Address _____

Number of class periods (each approx. 50 minutes) you can take _____

Please send this form by AUGUST 20, 2007

Email the Planning Committee: freedom@lacba.org

OR

Fax This Form to: Grace Danziger, Asst to the Executive Director LACBA
213- 613-1315